Volunteer with the Nechako Valley Exhibition!

About us:

The Nechako Valley Exhibition Society is a registered non-profit organization committed to providing and maintaining a first-rate agricultural recreation centre for the community of Vanderhoof and the Northern Interior. We host Vanderhoof's annual Fall Fair and provide year-round facilities for a variety of public recreation purposes.

About you:

We know that every volunteer has a valuable and unique skill set! Please submit the attached Volunteer Registration form with a little bit of information about yourself so that we can get to know you. This will help us match you with tasks that you will enjoy the most- and trust us, there's something for everyone!

We need all hands on deck!
